Tallis is a city built on the imagination and dreams of its people. Nomad Cities takes place over the course of 150 years, and is set in a distant future, where the world is hot and airless, resources have long been depleted, and humanity is just barely clinging to life. Due to these circumstances, it is decided to build a space city to give the surviving populations a chance for a new life. Living there will be the only way to pass the rest of their lives. A few hundred years later, the city is complete. Its first residents are now the last surviving humans. The city can easily support 800,000 inhabitants, but for now only a thousand live there. At least, that is, until a force of nomads arrives, attacking the city and threatening the rest of humanity with extinction. In order to save the lives of all of humanity, it is necessary to defend the city from the invaders. Your job is to do just that. There are many bittorrent trackers available — however, this site is best known for its selection of high-quality material. Users looking for legal downloads should use sites such as Limewire. Legal notes: This music was taken from an official soundtrack released for a hard-to-find game. Please direct any additional questions or requests to the author of this file. This music has not been released legally in any format. It has become a "general"-release, and is in the public domain. I've contacted various sources, and have no way to prove such a thing. Please do not take this to mean that I have any claims on such a work. I have simply decided to make it available to anyone who wants to hear it, regardless of copyright issues. I hold no claim to the music, so I have no urge to sue anyone. Please don't sue me, either. FAQ: How do I know this music is not a scam? This site is a "pirated" release of the soundtrack. So I'm guessing somebody is trying to make money off the music, seeing as how it's released on a "general-release".

So... why is it free? Because I like the idea of sharing things, and because
